Junction SM takes the lead with one of their most inspired moments. 'Radio Calypso' is a musically-awakening long track, uniquely mixing ambient beauty, minimalist beats, warm melodies and cosmic energy.

PEKI is a side project of the Berliner duo LiebelstCool. Their sound is easily recognizable: packed full of flowing grooves, innovative arrangements and tricky melodic twists.

On the B side, Seuil's 'Jealous Derviche' rattles and rolls in true Lessizmore dancefloor spirit, shifting in precise yet animated tribal techno.

Finally, Pheek's 'Impromptu' sends a driving beat into a sinister yet freaky trip. It takes the record out on a surgical bang, tossing up layers of sick melodies and loops of metallic percussion.
